ELECTION AND AUTHORIZATION FOR ELECTRONIC DELIVERY

If Owner signs up for eStatements, Owner will no longer receive a paper copy by mail and any notices associated with the account will also be sent electronically.

PROMPT REVIEW OF eSTATEMENTS & CONSENT

Owner must promptly review your eStatement and any accompanying items. Owner agrees to notify Peles immediately if you are unable to access any of the information that has been delivered by Peles to you in electronic format. Owner’s enrollment electronically confirms Owner’s ability to access information in the electronic form. All electronic communications will be deemed to have been received by Owner on the day that Peles sends the eStatements to the relevant email address, even if the recipient does not access the electronic communication for any reason. Owner acknowledges that, notwithstanding the use of secure methods of delivery, electronic messages may contain viruses or may be delayed and that there are confidentiality and other risks associated with the delivery of statements electronically, and the Owner agrees that Peles shall not be held responsible for any of these occurrences or for any unauthorized access and/or alteration to any electronic communication.

TERMINATION OF AGREEMENT

In order for Owner to withdraw your consent and terminate this agreement for eStatements, Owner must notify the Peles in writing, and give us 30-day notice.
